October 2007 Edition

First Annual Health and Safety Fair Coming Soon!

Just in time to welcome in some cooler fall temperatures, Alafaya Village will be hosting its first annual HEALTH & SAFETY FAIR on Sunday, Oct. 21 from 1-5 p.m. Included in the fun will be the Fire Department (with a truck, of course!), the Orange County Police Department and the Child Rescue Network providing complimentary identification cards. Also in attendance will be Florida Hospital CentraCare, with a limited number of flu shots available at $10 each. Specifically for the kids, we will have face painters, balloon artists, magicians, stilt-walkers, clowns, a bounce house and tasty treats like sno cones and cotton candy. We hope you make plans to join us for this fun family outing!

LifeSong Fall Festival

The celebration of Fall continues at Alafaya Village with LifeSong Church's unique Halloween celebration called 'Trunk or Treat.' Held on Sunday, October 28 from 5:00-6:30 p.m. in the parking lot adjacent to the church, Trunk or Treat promotes a safe version of trick or treating when church members pop open their trunks or tailgates to pass out candy to local children.

Not only are children invited to dress up in costume, but cars, trucks and SUV's can be decorated with balloons and streamers. In addition, some vehicles will have games for children to play and prizes for those who participate. There will also be a bounce house on site for extra fun.

Exciting News!
East Orlando Chamber is Newest Tenant at Alafaya Village!

Alafaya Village is proud to announce that our newest tenant is the East Orlando Chamber of Commerce. With their mission to be the catalyst in moving East Orlando from "Great to Greatness," Alafaya Village management is confident that close affiliation with the Chamber will be a win-win for everyone. Serving East Orlando since 1946, the East Orlando Chamber is committed to the growth and development of East Orange's growing business community, believing that a strong, healthy community runs parallel with a strong, healthy business environment. The Chamber is dedicated to building a positive business and civic climate through providing leadership, resources and benefits to a community.

Annie Winterbottom, EOCC President, is enthusiastic about the move to Alafaya Village saying, "We love being in a vibrant business park like Alafaya Village. It is the perfect location for us & central to everything East Orlando has to offer."
